

PORA WEBINAR SERIES

Measuring What Matters: Assessment and Outcomes for Children with Hearing Loss

Welcome to your PORA Webinar

Recording Online Class of 30.09.2026

Sponsor

Key Topics & Core Concepts

- The complementary roles of functional, informal and standardized assessment
- Establishing individual baselines and identifying individual needs
- Setting meaningful goals and monitoring progress over time
- Assessing skills and outcomes that are meaningful to children and families in everyday environments
- The role of systematic outcome reporting in clinical decision-making and service evaluation
- Using assessment and outcome data to support multidisciplinary discussions and decision-making
- Practical approaches to integrating assessment and outcome measurement into routine clinical practice
- Supporting quality improvement, accountability and good governance within paediatric hearing services

Featured Lecturer

Emma Rushbrooke is Chief Clinical Officer at Hear and Say in Brisbane, Australia. An audiologist and Listening and Spoken Language Specialist, she has more than 25 years of experience working with children with hearing loss and their families.